About the Cover

In celebration of the 25th Anniversary of the Office of the Ombudsman, the Integrity Caravan was launched in sync with the 8-Point Strategy of the Office. The aim---to build a broad-based strategic partnership of all anticorruption stakeholders, including an untapped target ---the Youth.

But the challenge was how to bring to life a big word as "integrity" in a manner that is relevant, truthful, and meaningful to them. Through the Integrity Development Contest, the Office of the Ombudsman was able to abridge that challenge by encouraging them to display the radiance of their pure creativity and pristine talents---thus, the 8 finalists of the Integrity Development Poster Making Contest.

MISSION

As protectors of the people, we shall endeavor, in cooperation with all sectors of Filipino society, to promote integrity and efficiency and high ethical standards in public service through proactive approaches in graft prevention and public assistance, prompt investigation of complaints, and aggressive prosecution of cases against erring government officials and employees.

VISION

A truly independent Office run by God-fearing men and women with the highest degree of competence, honesty and integrity, and effectively serving as watchdog, mobilizer, official critic, and dispenser of justice for the people it is constitutionally mandated to protect.

MESSAGE FROM THE OMBUDSMAN

The Philippines saw in 2013 a series of natural calamities and social catastrophes that rocked the entire nation. The residual effects of super typhoon "Yolanda" and super exposé "PDAF" have yet to settle, as they put to test two respective qualities: the resilience of the Filipino spirit and the vigilance of the Filipino people.

The nation was confronted by the wrath of nature which spelled misfortunes in people's lives and properties. The nation was likewise confronted by the rage of people who slammed the misuse of people's money. While "Yolanda" has gained infamy as the strongest typhoon to hit any country, the "PDAF" controversy has been tagged as the grandest corruption case thus far handled by the Office.

These adversities and complexities notwithstanding, the Office in 2013 achieved a considerable mileage in terms of case disposition. It was able to resolve 39% of the criminal case load despite a 17% increase in the workload, and 42% of the administrative case load despite a 10% increase in the workload. In 188 administrative cases, the Office imposed the penalty of dismissal from the service upon erring public officials. The Office also filed 961 criminal cases with the Sandiganbayan, more than double the number in 2012 and the highest in the last 18 years.

As part of the year-long anniversary celebration, the Office launched the "Integrity Caravan" project to build a broad-based strategic partnership with all anticorruption stakeholders through the conduct of public governance fora, integrity lecture series, university tours, barangay integrity seminars, and integrity development contests.

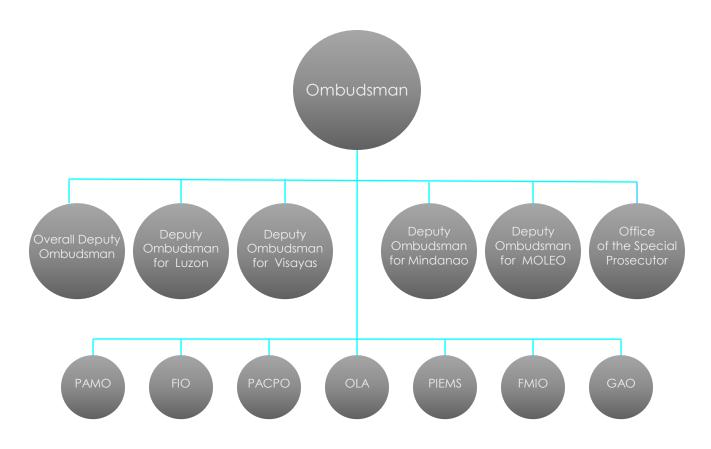

Incidents of corruption, indeed, need to be uncovered and unmasked. Any surge in exposed scams, all the more, deepens the Office's resolve to intensify the war against corruption. With the strong commitment of Ombudsman officials/employees and with the help of anti-corruption partners, the Office of the Ombudsman shall surely rise up to the challenge. This country shall emerge triumphant as the wheels of rehabilitation and the wheels of justice turn for the common good.

THE 8-POINT STRATEGY

When Justice Conchita Carpio Morales assumed as the 5th Ombudsman of the Republic of the Philippines, she immediately realized the magnitude of the problems that beset the Office. In order to set new directions and to chart a 7-year roadmap, a comprehensive strategic planning was initiated that steered towards the adoption of the policy thrust for CY2011-2018.

Policy Thrust:

To enhance efficiency, effectiveness, transparency, accountability, credibility and responsiveness in the performance of the mandate and functions of the Office towards the improvement of corruption prevention and control.

Along this thrust, the Office vigorously pursues the following eight-point priorities:

- 1. Prioritized disposition of complaints and cases involving high-ranking officials, large sums of money, grand corruption, and celebrated cases;
- 2. Zero-backlog;
- 3. Improved survival of fact-finding cases;
- 4. Enforced monitoring of referred cases;
- 5. Improved responsiveness of public assistance;
- 6. Improved anti-corruption policy and programme coordination among sectors;
- 7. Rationalized functional structure: and
- 8. Improved transparency and credibility of the Office of the Ombudsman.

Prioritized Disposition of High-Profile Cases

Under the law, the Ombudsman shall give priority to complaints filed against high-ranking government officials and/or those occupying supervisory positions, complaints involving grave offenses as well as complaints involving large sums of money and/or properties. As the lead anti-corruption agency, the Ombudsman gives the highest priority to the disposition of cases of grand corruption, as distinguished from petty or bureaucratic corruption, and those which are highly publicized.

Considering the limited resources of the Office, the Ombudsman concentrates on the disposition of these complaints and cases by effectively reducing the volume of non-priority complaints and cases (i.e., non-corruption cases, cases that are trivial or frivolous, and those which can be referred to other fora) in its workload. To be more responsive in the discharge of its mandate, priority complaints and cases are being disposed expeditiously within the timeframes prescribed under the rules.

Zero-Backlog Program

The Ombudsman efficiently discharges the mandate to investigate reports of official wrongdoing and to act on all requests for assistance from the public. It is ensuring zero backlog in the investigation of criminal cases, adjudication of administrative cases, and disposition of all grievances and requests for assistance.

Zero backlog depends on the collective efficiency of the entire manpower of the Ombudsman. It involves not only speeding up the disposition of complaints or cases but also maintaining efficiency, effectiveness, diligence, and integrity of all personnel who are accountable in every step of the internal processes of the Ombudsman. Zero backlog seeks to end a culture of delay that erodes public trust and credibility of the Ombudsman process.

3 Improved Survival Rate of Fact-finding

The quality of fact-finding investigation in terms of evidence gathering follows the standards of fairness, impartiality, and expediency in the pursuit of justice. The deterrent effect of investigations on corruption incidence in government can be maximized if official abuse is punished accordingly.

All completed fact-finding investigations which recommend the filing of criminal charges against erring public officials and employees should ensure that resulting cases filed in court shall not be dismissed.

Those which recommend the administrative indictment of erring public officials and employees should ascertain their conviction. The Field Investigation Office and counterpart bureaus in area/sectoral offices are being strengthened in the conduct of investigations utilizing specialized techniques such as forensic engineering, accounting and auditing.

Enforced Monitoring of Referred Cases

The Office exercises prudence in conducting investigations. Complaints and cases that are denominated as non-corruption and/or those cognizable by other fora are being referred to the proper forum for appropriate action. A system for monitoring these referred complaints and cases is being established to avoid unjustified delays in the termination of the appropriate administrative proceedings.

Criminal cases referred to the National Prosecution Service of the Department of Justice for prosecution in the regular trial courts are monitored until their final disposition in court. Ombudsman decisions in administrative cases indorsed to the heads of concerned agencies for implementation of the penalty are being strictly monitored to ensure compliance.

5 Improved Responsiveness of Public Assistance

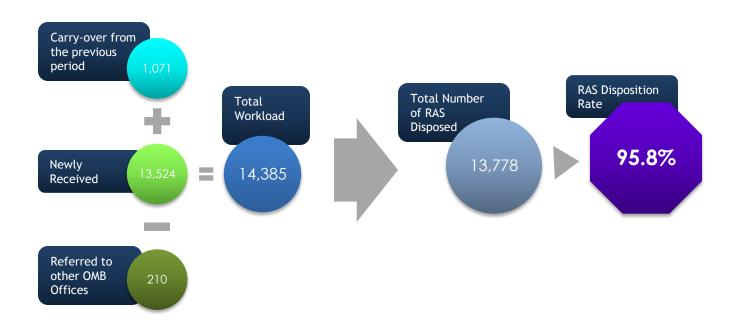

The Office of the Ombudsman strives to render meaningful, responsive, and relevant public assistance. All frontline service units should be extending prompt, courteous and adequate service to the public. Efforts are being made to meet, if not exceed, the reasonable expectations of the public. A system for active handling of customer feedback and redress of grievance, including integration into the performance evaluation of the concerned action officer, is being established to ensure compliance with the standard of public service delivery.

Requests for Assistance (RAS) and cases referred for mediation are being disposed expeditiously. The concerned action officer should take sufficient actions under the law to address the request or grievance.

6 Improved Anti-Corruption Policy and Programme Coordination among Sectors

A more effective corruption prevention policy is being formulated to improve public perception ratings and contribute to improving the national competitiveness ranking. Toward this end, all existing anti-corruption programs and projects are being evaluated for effectiveness and strategic alignment with medium-term plans and international commitments.

A multi-sectoral strategy is being devised to mobilize the support of all stakeholders for a more coherent anti-corruption program. The Ombudsman is ensuring dynamic and productive policy and program coordination among the different sectors.

Development of Programs and Projects

The development of the programs and projects of the Office of the Ombudsman is guided by national and international framework on good governance and anticorruption. It includes the Philippine Development Plan (PDP) 2011 – 2016 and the United Nations Convention Against Corruption (UNCAC), where the country is a signatory.

Within the ambit of national development, an efficient and effective delivery of its services will serve as building blocks to a corruption intolerant society, thus restoring public trust and confidence in government. This, in turn, will lead to a socio-economic environment that is stable and predictable, which are the basic prerequisites for more domestic and foreign investments in the country.
