

SECOND OMBUDSMAN INTEGRITY LECTURE

November 12, 2013
New World Hotel
Makati City

BERTRAND DE SPEVILLE

GUEST LECTURER

International Anti-Corruption Consultant To Various Governments

Work History

- 1996 to date – Principal, de Speville & Associates, anti-corruption consultancy
- 1993 - 96 -- Commissioner, Independent Commission Against Corruption, Hong Kong
- 1991 - 93 -- Solicitor General of Hong Kong
- 1985 - 91 -- Principal Crown Counsel, Hong Kong
- 1981 - 85 -- Deputy Principal Crown Counsel, Hong Kong
- 1977 - 80 -- Senior Legal Assistant/Legal Assistant, United Kingdom Legal Service
- 1967 - 77 -- Barrister in private practice, Chambers of Colin Fawcett, QC, London
- Advisory missions for the following governments:

Mauritius, East Timor, Uganda, Latvia, Mexico, Namibia, Mongolia, Equador, Sierra Leone, Indonesia, India, Taiwan, Nigeria, Jamaica, Pakistan, Madagascar, Montenegro, Trinidad & Tobago, Armenia, Botswana, Ukraine, Macedonia, Croatia and Gabon.

Bertrand de Speville, formerly Commissioner of the Independent Commission Against Corruption of Hong Kong, is a consultant in anti-corruption, good governance and integrity systems. He is the principal of the firm de Speville & Associates.

His engagements have included projects for the Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development, the Council of Europe, the United Kingdom Department for International Development, the World Bank, the Asian Development Bank, the United Nations Office for Drug Control and Crime Prevention, the United Nations Development Programme, USAID, Transparency International, the Carter Center, national governments and private sector corporations. For five years he was the adviser to the Council of Europe's Multidisciplinary Group on Corruption.

As Commissioner of the ICAC he was responsible directly to the Governor of Hong Kong for the conduct of the campaign against corruption, and in particular for the continuing drive to raise the ethical standards of Hong Kong business.

Mr de Speville is by profession a lawyer who trained and practised in London in the private and public sectors. He went to Hong Kong in 1981 as a legal adviser to the Hong Kong Government. He was Solicitor General from 1991 to 1993, when he was concerned mainly with criminal legal policy and the implementation of Hong Kong's newly introduced human rights legislation.

An Awardee of the 2012 Gusi
International Peace Prize

PANEL OF REACTORS

KARINA CONSTANTINO-DAVID

Ms. Karina Constantino-David is a former Chairperson of the Civil Service Commission of the Philippines. She also served as the chairperson of the Career Executive Service Board, a government entity supervising the top management personnel of the government. She presently sits as a member of the Government Service Insurance System (GSIS)

Board of Trustees.

Ms. David earned her degree in Sociology at the University of the Philippines Diliman in 1966. She completed academic requirements in the Master of Arts in Sociology program (orals lacking) from the same university in 1968. She obtained a Master of Arts in Economic and Social Studies from The Victoria University of Manchester in England in 1974.

On April 15, 2008, Ms. David received the World Bank's 2008 Jit Gill Memorial Award for Outstanding Public Service.

David held leadership posts at various civil society groups, one of which is People Power Volunteers for Reform (PPVR).

FLORIN T. HILBAY

Professor Florin T. Hilbay teaches Constitutional Law and Philosophy of Law at the UP College of Law where he also finished his LL.B degree. His interest in public law is supplemented by experience in public institutions: he was law clerk to Supreme Court justice Vicente Mendoza; an associate solicitor at the Office of the Solicitor General (on secondment, as assistant to former Sol. Gen. Simeon Marcelo); and a consultant to the Commission on Elections. He also serves as vice-chair of Bantay Katarungan (Sentinels of Justice), a civic organization formed by Jovito R. Salonga to address issues of public injustice and oversee the appointments process in the judiciary.

He was a Fulbright Visiting Scholar at Boston College and finished his LL.M at Yale Law School. He has also held fellowships at the Asian Law Institute at the National University of Singapore, Max Planck Institute for Comparative Public Law and International Law in Heidelberg, and Silliman University.

Presently, he is a Senior State Solicitor of the Office of the Solicitor General.

His collected works, Unplugging The Constitution, was published by the UP Press in 2009.

He ranked 1st in the 1999 bar exams.

ANDRES D. BAUTISTA

Before his appointment to PCGG, Chairman Andy Bautista was the Chief Executive Officer of Kuok Group Philippines and Dean of Far Eastern University's Institute of Law. He co-founded the Master of Business Administration-Juris

Doctor dual degree program of De La Salle Graduate School of Business and FEU.

He is the 1990 Ateneo Law class valedictorian and bar topnotcher. He obtained his Master of Laws from Harvard Law School in 1993. He was previously a Chairman and President of the Philippine Association of Law Schools, and a partner in an international law firm. He was also a member of Constitutional Reform Commissions under previous administrations.

ROWENA E.V. DAROY-MORALES

Rowena E.V. Daroy Morales is an Assistant Professor of the University of the Philippines College of Law since 1994. She graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in Communications degree majoring in Broadcast Communication from the University of the Philippines in 1973. She obtained a Bachelor of Laws degree as a Dean's Medalist from the University of the Philippines in 1993. She also earned her Master of Arts in Communications degree from the College of Mass Communication in UP.

Formerly, Prof. Morales was a Law Associate in Sycip Salazar Gatmaitan Law Firm, Labor Auditor of Verite, Inc., and Lead Facilitator of the PHILJA-Supreme Court Project on Change Management and Case Flow

Management. Currently, she is a Director of the Office of Legal Aid (OLA), a lecturer in MCLE, an Executive Committee member of the Gerry Roxas Foundation, Inc. and a Lawyer-on-call for the Reception and Study Center for Children (DSWD).