

Corrupt-Free Philippines Video Making Contest Mechanics

CONCEPT: The Office of the Ombudsman is engaging the youth in its efforts to address corruption in the country. To harness their innate creativity, students are invited to prepare a short video expressing strong awareness on anti-corruption and good governance by promoting integrity and honesty in public service.

ELIGIBILITY:

Open to all college students, aged 18 to 23 years old, who are currently enrolled in any public or private universities/colleges in the Philippines.

GUIDELINES:

1. Participants must form a group of three (3) members who will perform production roles such as director, scriptwriter, and production assistant. Other students may help as actors but only those with production roles are considered as contestants. Only one (1) entry per group will be accepted.
2. All entries must be a 3 - 5 minute video; either a documentary, short film, audio visual campaign or an infomercial, about fighting corruption leading to good governance. Video materials should be taken using mobile phones only.
3. All entries must be original, unpublished online or in any other media platform, and has not been submitted to any other contest/s. Songs and musical scoring should have no copyright infringement.
4. All entries must be submitted together with the following documents
 - One (1) Duly accomplished entry form downloadable at <http://www.ombudsman.gov.ph>
 - One (1) Copy of each group member's birth certificate
5. Send all entries with complete documents at integritycaravan@ombudsman.gov.ph using the following email subject format: (title of the entry) (island group where the entry is originating from: Luzon, Visayas, Mindanao or NCR)
