- d) He may establish areas or zones to be served by any station;
- e) He may make special rules and regulations applicable to radio stations engaging in chain broadcasting;
- f) He may make general rules and regulations requiring stations to keep records of traffic handled, distress, frequency watches, programs, transmissions of energy, communications or signs;

g) He may conduct such investigations as may be necessary in connection with radio matters and hold hearings, summon witnesses, administer oaths and compel the production of books, logs, documents and papers;

h) He may prescribe rules and regulations to be observed by radio training schools; he may supervise the course and method of instruction therein, and he may refuse to admit to examinations for radio operators' licenses graduates of any radio school not complying with the regulations;

i) He shall prescribe rates of charges to be paid to the Government for the inspection of stations, for the licensing of stations, for the examination of operators, for the licensing of operators, for the renewal of station or operator licenses, and for such other services as may be rendered;

j) He is hereby empowered to approve or disapprove any application for the construction, installation, establishment or operation of a radio station;

k) He may approve or disapprove any application for renewal of station or operator license: Provided however, that no application for renewal shall be disapproved without giving the licensee a hearing;

l) He may, at his discretion, bring criminal actions against violators of the radio law or the regulations; or simply suspend or revoke the offender's station or operator's licenses; or refuse to renew such licenses; or just reprimand and warn the offenders;

m) The location of any station, and the power and kind or type of apparatus to be used shall be subject to his approval;

n) He shall prescribe rules and regulations to be observed by stations for the handling of SOS messages and distress traffic: Provided, that such rules and regulations shall not conflict with the provisions of the International Radio Regulations.
